

An answer in the midst of life's questions

My idea of cleaning the house is sweeping the floor with a glance, but yesterday as I was making the motions of cleaning out one of my files, I stumbled across a collection of humorous questions that still stump philosophers today.

Why do toasters always have a setting that burns toast to a horrible crisp which no normal person would eat? Why is there a light in the fridge and not in the freezer?

If Jimmy cracks corn and no one cares, why is there a song about him? Why do the Alphabet song and Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star have the same tune?

If the professor on Gilligan's Island can make a radio out of coconuts, why can't he fix a hole in a boat?

Is Disney World the only people trap operated by a mouse? Why does Goofy stand erect while Pluto remains on all fours? They're both dogs!

Why is a person that handles your money called a 'Broker?' Why is it that by the time you find greener pastures, you can't climb the fence?

Why is it that when someone tells you there are over a billion stars in the universe, you believe them, but if they tell you there is wet paint somewhere, you have to touch it to make sure?

Why is it that when you blow in a dog's face, he doesn't like it, but when you take him on a car ride, he sticks his head out the window?

Aren't you glad in a world full of questions we have an answer? In the words of Andrea Crouch, "Jesus is the answer for the world today. Above him there's no other, Jesus is the way. Jesus is the answer for the world today. Above him there's no other, Jesus is the way"

"If you have some questions in the corners of your mind, and traces of discouragement and peace you can not find. Reflection of the old past, they seem to face you every day. There's one thing I know for sure that Jesus is the way."

"I know you got mountains that you think you can not climb. I know that your skies have been dark, You think the sun won't shine. In case you don't know, I'm here to tell you that the Word of God is true, and everything that He's promised, I tell you He would do it for you.

"Jesus is the answer for the world today. Above Him there's no other, Jesus is the way!" Let's all sing it!
